Warrington, June 4th 1858

Dear Friend,

45.

I just send a line, merely to say how tenderly we cherish your self & work. You northerners are queer folk; every one that comes over wants to make us believe that ~~you~~ they are all thoroughly sound A.S. men, but have no more connexion with slavery than we have. Whereupon I say that they have at last as much;

& as it is our duty to speak & work against it, à fortiori it is theirs. We are rather sorry the Bazaar is going up, as there are many who work helps that way who can't any other. I presume we shall send to Phil[a]. A good deal will be diverted to F. Douglas' bazaar.

I seem booked here just at present; but shd not wonder if I came on to you shortly next year on Nat. Hist. business.

Perhaps you will let H. C. Wright or any one else send pamphlets to you for me, & make them up in one lot for Mr. Robson to bring back.

If you see them, please give my kindest rem^s to Theodore Parker, S. May, S. J. May, Mr^s Chapman, Mr^s Follen, Miss Weston, & any one else who may kindly remember your aff^e friend
